

The Open Society Foundations in partnership with the African Centre for Migration & Society and Wits Journalism are hosting a panel discussion on

China-Africa Migration

Contemporary movement and socio-economic change

Panel Discussants

Wilf Mbanga - Founder and Editor of the “Zimbabwean” Newspaper
Title: Sino-Zim relations: who are the real beneficiaries?

Howard French - The Columbia University Graduate School of Journalism
Title: New trends in Chinese migration to Africa.

Sanusha Naidu -
Title: China and the changing balance of Africa's political balance:
What does this mean for Beijing's African engagements?

Thursday, 7 April 2011, 18:00

Wits Professional Development Hub, Wits University,
CNR of Jan Smuts and Empire Road (entrance of Empire Road)

www.migration.org.za

RSVP Padma Dayah by 04 April – padma.dayah@wits.ac.za or 011 717 4092